Again :- When Judge Stark was cleeted, 8 years since, the dockets, in each Sales Reported Since Our Last Issue county in this circuit, were crowded. He has cleaned them up and kept them

He has promptly attended every court when well. A few times he was unwell and sent a man at his own expense, to hold the courts. The law did not require him to do this.

In exciting cases, he did not hunt for the popular side-but,"knowing no man after the fiesh," and looking alone to the path of sworn duty, he had the moral courage to fulfill his oath of office, In thus acting his conduct has been sustained by our supreme Court. It was his misfortune to have an honest misunderstanding with one of our most highly esteemed citizens, Milton Green, Esq. Since the canvass for Judge of this circuit opened up, this affair has been talked of in various shapes.

In this connection we call attention to the following joint statement of Esquire Green and Judge Stark. The state of Tennessee does not contain two more honorable gentlemen than they.

Their statement is so plain, and satisfactory, that it needs no comment:

"As is known to the public, there has As is known to the public, there has existed an unfortunate difference between the undersigned, Milton Green and Jo. C. Stark, as to our pecuniary dealings. The matter has been talked about a great deal during the present canvass for Judge of this circuit. But this talk was not had at the instance of either of as either of us.

At the advice of our mutual friends, we have been together, and talked the matter over freely and fully with each other; and are gratified to state, that there was an honest misunderstanding between us, and that the whole matter between us, and that the whole matter is now amicably settled to our entire satisfaction, and that it will afford the undersigned, Milton Green, pleasure to support Judge Stark in this election."

MILTON GREEN.
JO. C. STARK.

Judge Stark has lived in Robertson county more than 40 years.

He has never gone back on our people. They have never gone back on 14 50, 10 00, 11 50.

He can safely appeal to them for that fair and just treatment, which a manly people will always extend to a faithful public officer.

A Desperate Negro Shoots Another Negro

Mr. Ed. Boyd, a prominent larmer of Christian county, Ky., living near Newstead, was in the city Monday and gave an account of a serious row that occurred at a negro festival in Newstead at an early hour Sunday morning.

The festival had been in progress all night, and about 3 o'clock a negro named Bob Allen got into a difficulty with another negro, whose name is unknown, and stabbed him, inflicting a slight flesh would. Jim Macrea, colored, interfered in behalf of the man who was stabbed, and Alien drew a pis- June 25, 1886, 166 hhds, as follows: tol and shot him twice, one ball penetrating the fleshy part of the right shoulder and the other taking effect just under the eye.

Allen made his escape, and Mr. Boyd effers a reward for his arrest. He is a heavy-set, black negro, about 5 feet 8 inches high, no beard, and with projecting teeth. He has a hard reputation. Macrae was a good negro. He had lived on Mr. Boyd's farm seven or eight

Temperance Work.

Mrs. Rose H. Wilson was unavoidably detained by sickness, making it impossible for her to reach Montgomery county in time to fill her appointments as advertised. It has been thought best to re-arrange the list.

She is in the county and will speak at the following named places on the dates indicated. We ask the people in each community to do their utmost to make their meetings a success in order that the most good may be accomplished by Mrs. Wilson's work in our county:
